

Garden Visiting

Group leader; Chris Benn.

Visits to gardens open to the public, probably once a month and the day would depend on what is available This would entail members using their own transport. They may be prepared to offer lifts, depending on any Covid19 restrictions.

The Group only started last year and plans were badly affected by the virus but we did manage a visit to Holehird and one to Harlow Carr