

Book group

Leader: Jackie Allott:

We meet on the 3rd Monday 2pm -4.30pm in The Friends Meeting House.

We are an informal group meeting where we take it in turns to choose a book for general discussion. This means a chance to read a wide range of books which may not normally be on our own agenda. There are plenty of opportunities to talk and to listen.

The group is limited to about twelve members as it meets in members homes usually. If this limit is exceeded, the possibility of forming a second group will be explored.
